

SUES HER MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Wetmore Seeks to Recover Unpaid Alimony.

Dr. Seward Webb, of the Vanderbilt Family, a Witness.

The suit of Mrs. Annette V. Wetmore to recover arrears of alimony from Mrs. Sarah T. Wetmore, mother of her divorced husband, Major William E. Wetmore, and trustee of his estate, was begun before Justice Ingraham, in the Supreme Court, to-day.

The plaintiff is the daughter of the late David Wetmore, school commissioner, but she is not a blood relative of her husband. She obtained an absolute divorce from her husband about two years ago and was awarded $5,000 a year alimony.

Major Wetmore is a West Point graduate and a well known clubman, a member of the Union and New York Yacht Clubs. He inherited a fortune of about $20,000 from his father. About $10,000 of his estate is in the form of a "trust fund," of which his mother is trustee.

Shortly after Mrs. Wetmore obtained her divorce Major Wetmore sailed away on his yacht Lurline, and has since kept out of the jurisdiction of the courts of this State and has thereby avoided paying the alimony.

Mrs. Wetmore began an action to recover the alimony due her, and the Continental Trust Company was appointed receiver of Wetmore's estate. The Trust Company brought an action against Mrs. Sarah T. Wetmore, as trustee, and the Court of Appeals ruled that the Trust Company was not the proper party to bring the suit, and that it should be brought by Mrs. Wetmore, the divorced wife. This is the present suit.

The case came up today out of its place on the calendar. Judge Ingraham held it over to next week, so that it will be brought to speedy trial.

Dr. Seward Webb, son-in-law of the late William E. Vanderbilt, who is the attorney for the plaintiff, testified that in 1888 and 1889 he was quite intimate with Major Wetmore. During that time he used to act as Wetmore's adviser in stock market affairs, and in 1890 he helped Wetmore cleared about $2,000.

He said that at that time Wetmore was worth about $20,000 in stocks and bonds and trust funds of $10,000 already mentioned.

The trial is still on.

KIBBEL WASN'T THERE.*But His Understudy at the Catskill's Brought About His Divorce.

Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court, granted an absolute divorce to Hugo Kibbel, a saloon-keeper, of 44 East Eleventh street, from his wife, Emma, whom he married March 16, 1887.

Last August Kibbel sent his wife to the Catskill Mountains for her health. His subsequent discoveries revealed that her health improved at the expense of her morals.

When she returned, apparently much better, in September, Kibbel found a letter in his wife's pocket, written by an ardent lover in a most affectionate strain. Then Kibbel learned that his wife had discovered that Mrs. Kibbel had boarded at a house with a man who was known as Mr. Kibbel.

On receipt of this information he went to Lawyer August P. Wagner, of 32 Second avenue, and instituted divorce proceedings.

MOTHER DRUNK, BABY CRYING.

Mrs. Howe Takes to Drink After Being Dispossessed.

Harrer Howe, forty-eight years old, now a homeless woman, a tramp in the Harlem Court this morning, having been taken with intoxication in another room, was her two-year-old baby girl crying for her mother.

Policemen late last night found the woman intoxicated in the cedar of 136 East Sixty-seventh street, with the child crying by her side.

Howe, it is known, has a history of drunkenness, and, further cross-examination, Judge Gildersleeve finally decided in favor of Lawyer Grant.

BASEBALL CONTRACTS FOR '94.

Westervelt a Regular Giant—Brooklyn Lets Hilt Field Go.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—President Young gives out the following statement of baseball contracts, releases, &c., for 1894.

INVESTIGATION BY WHOLESALE.

Senator Lexow Wants It to Reach All Cities in the State.

KNOWN AS MRS. LAUTERBACH.

(By Associated Press)

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 16.—The Senate of the United States was ordered to the Senate chamber this morning, with the exception of the members of the Committee on Manufactures, to hear Senator William F. D. Richardson, of Michigan, speak on the subject of the investigation of the national banks.

The Senate adjourned.

SENATOR AND THE VICE-PRESIDENT.

(By Associated Press)

ALBANY, Jan. 16.—The Senate of the United States was ordered to the Senate chamber this morning, to hear Senator Jacob M. Howard, of Michigan, speak on the subject of the investigation of the national banks.

SENATOR SCHMIDT HELD FOR TRIAL.

CANTOR'S INSOLVENCY BILL.

To Mature Every Obligation at the Time of Insolvency.

(By Associated Press)

ALBANY, Jan. 17.—Senator Cantor has introduced a bill to mature every debt and obligation of an insolvent debtor at the time of his insolvency.

STATE SENATORS AND THE VICE-PRESIDENT.

(By Associated Press)

ALBANY, Jan. 16.—The Senate of the United States was ordered to the Senate chamber this morning, to hear Senator Jacob M. Howard, of Michigan, speak on the subject of the investigation of the national banks.

SENATOR FRANCIS SUES HERSELF.

Unwittingly Signed a Deed Which She Wants Set Aside.

Mrs. Steinerwald's Allegation in a Suit for Separation.

Mrs. Steinerwald, a widow, nineteen years old, charged her husband, Jacob, in the Court this morning, with attempting to poison her by putting arsenic in the tea she takes daily.

Jacob appeared to the court on the average of delirium tremens. He accused his wife of being on too intimate relations with Lester Forster, a lawyer, and said that his wife had herself got the paint green in the tea to get him in trouble.

He will also make a complaint against Schmid, his lawyer, for the results of which they know amount to $2,000.

PUT PARIS GREEN IN HER TEA.

Mrs. Cordes says her husband did, but he says she did.

Mrs. Billie Cordes, of 20 East Ninety-fifth street, charged her husband, Jacob, in the Court this morning, with attempting to poison her by putting arsenic in the tea she takes daily.

Jacob appeared to the court on the average of delirium tremens. He accused his wife of being on too intimate relations with Lester Forster, a lawyer, and said that his wife had herself got the paint green in the tea to get him in trouble.

He will also make a complaint against Schmid, his lawyer, for the results of which they know amount to $2,000.

CHASED HER WITH A CLEAVER.

Mrs. Steinerwald's Allegation in a Suit for Separation.

Mrs. Steinerwald, a widow, nineteen years old, charged her husband, Jacob, in the Court this morning, with attempting to poison her by putting arsenic in the tea she takes daily.

Jacob appeared to the court on the average of delirium tremens. He accused his wife of being on too intimate relations with Lester Forster, a lawyer, and said that his wife had herself got the paint green in the tea to get him in trouble.

He will also make a complaint against Schmid, his lawyer, for the results of which they know amount to $2,000.

CHARGED WITH ROBING, a Saloon.

Holmes Greenleaf, a bookbinder, thirty years old, of 32 Eighth street, and Marion Lutwick, a bookseller, thirty-five years old, of 22 East Houston street, were held in $2,000 bail by Justice Dugay, in the Essex Market Police Court, to-day.

Mr. S. Seward, of 180 East One Hundred and Thirty-first street, whose apartment-house is situated on the corner of Madison and One Hundred and Thirtieth streets, was out of town, between Jan. 3 and 6, and a large amount of clothing and jewels were found in his room.

Greenleaf and Lutwick, of the same address, were held in $2,000 bail.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.

She says that last Saturday she was compelled to leave her husband, because of his cruel treatment. On one occasion, when he wanted to hold her, he pulled her hair.

He is a bookbinder, and a man of about twenty-two years of age.